

Accountability to Rigorous Thinking is also about what students discuss and is closely related to Accountability to Accurate Knowledge.

It's about using that accurate knowledge to build a logical and coherent line of argument.

Students use sound reasoning, as well as evidence, to back up their claims. You might hear questions like, "Why do you think that?" Or, "What's your reasoning behind that explanation?"